ASIDES

RAISING CHICKENS?

If you are a chicken fancier there are troubles in the flock, no doubt. But you are not alone, and the combined efforts of all who live by the egg can solve some of these difficulties.

The annual conference for Pennsylvania poultrymen and their friends from neighboring states will be held June 18 and 19 at Pennsylvania State university. They will attempt to overcome some of the problems which make it one of the most distressing years in the chicken industry.

What's New In Feeding Chickens, What Is Needed to Make the Started Pullet Program Successful, What's New in Poultry Housing and Mechanical Equipment, Management Pointers for Growing Turkeys, Marketing and Merchandising Quality Eggs, How Can I Survive the Future of the Chicken Industry, Pennsylvania's Certified Egg Program, Preventive Medication, and other health and production pointers will be discussed.

On the playful side there will be a drumstick golf tournament, a ladies' tea, and the annual banquet. There also is a breeders conference on the preceding day, June 17.

HEAVY LIGHTNING TOLL

Down on the farm they suffer heavily from lightning bolts. Of the 500 people who are killed by lightning in this nation annually, and the 1300 who are injured, ninety per cent of them are in rural areas.

Many of these accidents could be avoided with protection and care. Today's protection for homes comprises more than rods. The systems are engineered to collect static charges from the entire building and the things in it, and to dissipate them into the air.

For personal protection you should avoid making yourself a target. Golfers with clubs in their hands might as well be walking around with lightning rods.

Sitting on tractors or near wire fences, or under lone trees, and even on hilltops or on open spaces isn't advised. The safest place is your car. But you can get into a ravine or ditch, or in thick timber where the trees are lowest. A rod building also is a safe spot.

When at home keep away from screen doors, fireplaces, open windows, and metal objects.

(Much of this advice is provided by Asst. County Farm Agent Blaine Schlosser.)

PHOTOGRAPHY ISSUE

Photography's place in the world of art is very well discussed in a group of articles which appear in the May 16 issue of the Saturday Review. There also are several pages of leading photographs, both black and white and color.

THE CONTAINER SCRAMBLE

You can throw away your beer cans and even many of your glass beer bottles. Milk comes in cardboard containers. Aluminum moves into steel's area by attempting to contain motorists, and no doubt will. Plastic is all around us.

So steel strikes back. It is pushing a big publicity campaign to sell you on the advantage of pop in cans.

And speaking of pop in cans, you will hear a major push this year about the tastiness of rum and 7-Up.

Let the buyer beware.

NO LET-UP ON LUNGS

Despite the continued publicity given the relationship between heavy smoking and lung cancer there is no sign of conscience in the cigarette industry. Chesterfield has mapped an advertising campaign for next fall that includes all or part of the following tv programs: The Alaskans, Adventures in Paradise, The Untouchables, Black Saddle, and Rebel. All of them will be ABC.

HERE'S HOW YOU WILL PAY

Back in 1949 Pennsylvania motorists were paying a tax of five cents for every gallon of gasoline they used. They still are paying five cents a gallon to the state. In 1949 they paid $10 for their car registration. They still are paying $10. And ten years ago they were charged $1 for their driver's license. That also is today's price.

Does this give you an intimation of things to come?

Yes!

WARREN

Motorists in Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee are paying a gasoline tax of seven cents a gallon.

In Arkansas, Georgia, Oklahoma, Vermont, and Washington it is 6-1/2 cents a gallon.

There are twenty-one states, including New York and California, and the District of Columbia which assess the motorist six cents a gallon.

Are we reaching you?

The registration fee for cars in New York ranges from $15 to $20. In New Jersey and Maryland it is $15. Ohio's price is $10. West Virginia charges $17.

The light . . . it shines?

The cost of a driver's license is $2 in Arkansas, Maine, Mississippi, Delaware, Oklahoma, and Rhode Island. It is $2.50 in Vermont. New Jersey and Connecticut have a $3 price.

This isn't our idea. It comes in a brochure neatly put out by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways. And we are using it to hit you in the head, so as to prepare you for what might have been a shock when you felt the pass at your purse.

The addition of one more cent to your gasoline price per gallon would provide the state with $31 million a year. A $5 expansion of your registration fee would yield $17-1/2 million. A $2 increase ($2 we said, making it $3 a year) would produce $11 million.

That adds up to what the Department says it needs, $59-1/2 million to put alongside the $45 million it now has available from its motor fund for the construction program. This makes a total of $104-1/2 million to put with $144.9 million which the federal government will provide.

If we don't do this we won't get the federal matching aid. If we do, the total is about $250 million.

The quarter of a billion is what the state needs to carry out a 12-year construction program, totaling $3 billion. This also will rebuild and reconstruct 5,000 miles of the state's 21,000 miles of 100 per cent state financed roads, or 417 miles a year. And that is only six miles per county. It will rebuild only half the restricted and obsolete bridges which now number 4,600.

In the state are 1,500 miles of interstate highways, 5,700 miles of primary and urban highways, 13,100 miles of secondary roads, and the 21,000 miles of state roads, for a total of 41,600 miles.

There are 22,000 bridges, including the 4,600 restricted and obsolete structures we have mentioned.

If these figures make sense to you, Gunga Din bows. But no matter how you arrange them, juggle their miles and dollar marks, or finger your oriental thing-a-ma-gig (abacus, that is), you can read it loud and clear. The price of motoring is going up in Pennsylvania.

And if it hasn't gone up since 1949, and if we are behind many other states in the quality of our highways, why the delay? Though we wouldn't pretend to make sense out of this conglomeration of millions as presented by the Highway Department, we get one vital point.

The price has been the same too long, and our highways look it. If $8 more a year for car and driver, and a cent more per gallon for gasoline will remedy the situation we see our duty and will chart our course.

We are looking for a small foreign job that burns about one-thirtieth of a gallon to go a mile, needs no anti-freeze, and has an outboard motor for the deeper puddles.

Batten the hatches, fatten the batches (of tourists), and avast!

(We probably shouldn't mention it here, but the cost of your car insurance also is going up 17 per cent this year.)

(And you know what motorist is going to pay more federal gasoline taxes to provide those matching funds?)

BETTER DENTAL FILLINGS

At this writing we would not know what the voters decided about fluoridation in Warren and Youngsville. Some very outlandish propaganda was distributed against it on Monday of this week. If the public was so gullible that it believed the pamphlets left at our doors and on cars the dark ages are far from gone.

But if we have not taken this step toward the reduction of cavities in the teeth of our future generations, at least we may be content that better fillings are being developed. These will chemically bond with the teeth and will have the same properties and appearance of the teeth. They also will resist any tendency for recurrence of decay around the filling.

So said Dr. Ralph W. Phillips, professor and chairman of the Department of Dental Materials of Indiana School of Dentistry, when he spoke to the 91st annual meeting of Pennsylvania dentists. The material might be metal or a plastic, but it probably will be the latter.

(But, beware! Perhaps the Russians are insidiously plotting to fill our teeth with a material that will melt them to the gums. Perhaps all of us should stay away from those whirling grinders and let our teeth rot naturally in our mouths.)

BUYING SECURITY

A major share of America is buying security today in the form of regular payments which are taken from each pay. A family may receive up to $254 a month in case of a workman's death, and a retired couple over 65 can receive as much as $175.

This is not enough in today's fattening economy, but it is a base on which to plan. With this kind of income assured, you need have very little more to provide you with a fair amount for average living.

If a family can pay for its home, put away some kind of investment, pay up its insurance, and equip itself so that home furnishing replacements will be minimized it can live very nicely. But if it does not plan for the future the $175, and probably less, will be insufficient.

In fact it is the family that does not think of tomorrow which probably will be the least able to live on the social security check. Too many of us are living our income up to the hilt. None of it is being put away. We are letting the government do that.

But the government isn't. Social security provides only a minimum to keep us off of relief and out of the poorhouse. If you are using your income up to its neck, the $175 and under come-down will be more difficult to manage than if you were accustomed to less.

There now is an effort being made to provide health insurance for those who have reached the age 65. This all of us should be supporting. A few pennies out of your pay and you not only will have a basic income but you also will have medical and doctor bills covered when they are most apt to be coming your way.

This will be opposed, of course, because many fear that the next stop will be to provide health insurance for all of us through monthly payroll deductions. This is being done by some nations and at a very low price. It also will be done in the United States, but not until a few years of abuse have been suffered by those who favor such a humane practice.

Meanwhile, Canada has health insurance for the family at $4 a month.

PUBLIC BEWARE

A creeping effort to make borough, city, county, and school purchases possible without letting the public know and without the benefit of bids is very evident in Pennsylvania. And progress is being made which the public should oppose.

About eight years ago the first step was taken when the purchase price at which bids must be obtained and legal notices published was raised from $500 to $750. This seemed practical because governing bodies often had to act quickly for small operating purchases, and prices were going up.

Third class cities in 1957 had this limit raised to $1,000. Which means that in many municipalities today a department can buy up to $1,000 worth of a material or service without asking for bids and without advertising for those bids.

Now the effort is being made to raise this to $1,500! If the third class cities get this one through the legislature, others will follow.

For operating efficiency we approve ordinary purchases without constant advertising and within a practical figure. But this is getting a little large. There are many major purchases which can be made for $1500, and much unsatisfactory equipment can be obtained for that figure.

And if no concerted effort is made to block this advance, another year or two will see it jumped to $2,000.

How far this legislation has moved in Harrisburg we do not know, but it was due for the senate this week. If the senate passes it, you can urge a veto.

What is most amazing about this is the ease with which Harrisburg puts this kind of thing through when really constructive legislation is stalled for months. House Bill 1453 is the one we are discussing. It was introduced on Monday night, April 27, referred to committee the next morning, and was reported from committee the following day, April 29. The
POLITICS OF IT

Incumbency, door-pounding, and subtle party maneuvering were the obvious factors in Tuesday's primaries. There also was some independent thinking, as evidenced in the county commissioner race where Blain Mead, who is very much disapproved in many GOP circles, led the race with a total of 3799. His positive term apparently paid off and the best the organization could do was nominate one of its two candidates, Clarence Akeley, who received 3558. Chris Yutze, the other party choice, had 2743.

The commissioner race was not a clear-cut case of incumbents versus challengers. If Mead had been as negative in his official activities as was the case with L. L. Johnson, he would have lost. Johnson was third with 2784. The unheralded Frank Darrow got 876.

Low Crippen proved his record's strength and the Democrat party showed some power in the commissioner competition. The chosen two were Crippen and William L. Martin. They walked into the nomination with 1892 and 1260, respectively. Mark Summerson and Ervine N. Branch received 983 and 783. This reduces the chances of a GOP maneuver to split tickets in an effort to name a Democrat friend. There isn't one.

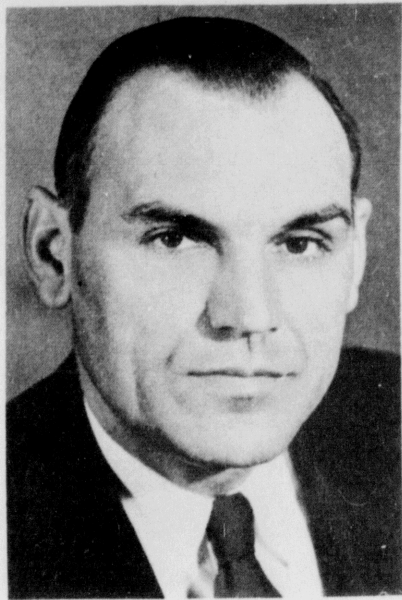

The incumbents spread themselves thin in the prothonotary contest where Warren Lowe was the GOP nominee with 2971 votes. His closest opponent was Robert Ritchie who had 1931. Larry Linder got 1563 and Prothonotary Ralph Sires received 1417.

Ritchie, Linder, and Sires are holding county offices today and all are considered party men. Mr. Lowe also received some support from Senator L. E. Chapman who many consider to be the strongest politician in Warren county.

The present deputy sheriff, Don

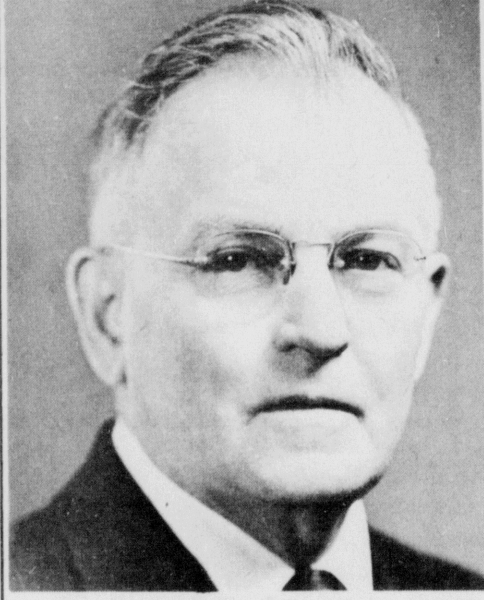

DON ALLEN, JR.

BLAIN MEAD

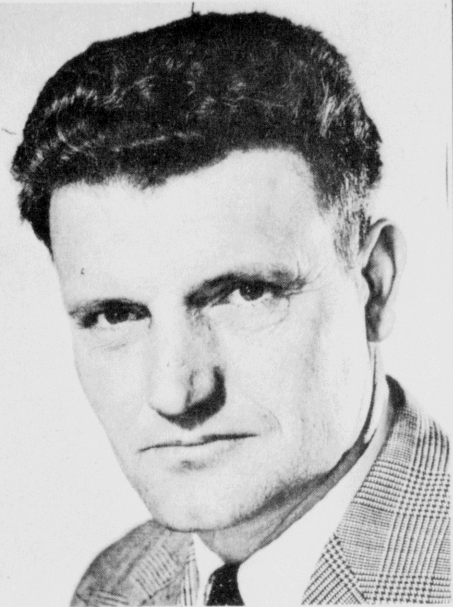

WILLIAM E. RICE

Allen, surprised many with an easy victory in the race for that office. He had 3338 votes. His greatest challenge came from Pat Ferrie who pounded nearly every door in the county in a very energetic campaign for 2212 votes. Allen probably would have been even stronger if a former deputy, Sandy Secor, had not been in the field. Sandy earned 1688. Clayton Rhoades had 768.

Gurney Ball had been around politics too long and had too many friends who owed him allegiance for an independent like Bob Geiger to go far against him in the register and recorder race. The old pro received 4651 to Geiger's 3030. Geiger had no party support, though he had been led to believe when he lost the last election that there would be some help for him this time. He did win in Warren, 1477 to 1461.

William E. Rice continued his political ascendancy by leading the Republican ticket with 4954. His unknown, unsupported, and politically weak opponent, Ralph H. Dyke, had 2662.

The Warren borough council received no help from its constituents in the fluoridation issue. Warren voted 1278 against it and 1263 in favor, a difference of only 15 votes. If the many who didn't vote because they forgot or couldn't find the place on the machines had done so we believe the margin would have been slightly in favor of the proposal.

As it now stands council does not have a clear mandate and must act as it should have in the first place. This is not a government by referendum and officials must have the courage to do what is best for the public despite a lack of understanding on the part of many citizens. They must choose between factual medical proof and fanatical pamphleteering.

* In Youngsville we suspect that politics got mixed up in the fluoridation issue and personalities played a bigger part than the good of the young people. The issue was defeated, 396 to 191.

* In Conewango twp. the voters emphatically said they did not want a saloon in their residential area. They licked a wet proposal, 625 to 228.

* In local contests, Dr. Ross Bryan defeated Eugene Manfrey for the four-year council seat in Warren's new Tenth Ward. The incumbent Warren school directors, Keller, O'Connor, and Cowden, led the Republican race as follows: Melvin Keller, 1740; Dr. A. J. O'Connor, 1606; W. H. Cowden, 1560; Richard Huber, 1481, and Abe Schwartz, 781.

* Other results:
Supreme Court Judge: Republicans, Gunther, 4700, McBride, 1874. Democrats, McBride, 1442, Eagen, 991. (The Warren county Democrats showed new strength here by getting a majority for McBride despite his state loss.)

Judge Superior Court: Republican Johnson 5368, Democrat Montgomery 1947.

* The count for unopposed Democrats read as follows: Register and Recorder, Vinton E. Finzer, 2199; Prothonotary, Robert E. Meleen, 2233; Sheriff, John Imperial, 2353; County Treasurer, John Salamon, 2239; Warren School Board, Mrs. David Potter, John P. Fanaritis, Wayne Delchambre.

Other nominations for county offices included Thomas H. Conway, Dem., Wilma J. Toner, Rep., for Jury Commissioner; Ralph Summerson and Frank A. Fago, Democrats, Lynn A. Branch and Merrell L. Jordan, Republicans for auditor.

Warren Council Candidates chosen were: First Ward, James C. Torrance and W. Beyer Africa, Republicans; Third Ward, Glen J. Patchen, Rep., and Mark Bevevino, Dem.; Fourth Ward, Gus Swick, Rep. and Victor Graziano, Dem.; Fifth Ward, Leon Laskaris and Karl G. Timm, Republicans; Sixth Ward, W. D. McElwain, Rep., and John Fago, Dem.; Seventh Ward, Robert S. Gibb, Jr., Rep., and Isadore Trager, Dem.; Eighth Ward, Art Langdon, Rep., Karl E. Peterson, Sr., Dem.; Ninth Ward, Ray A. Marti, Rep. and William E. Brooks, Dem.; Tenth Ward, Dr. Ross Bryan and Louis C. Niederlander, Republicans, and John Shaffer, Dem.

REMAIN UNBEATEN

Coach Dan Stimmel's Dragon baseballers continued unbeaten Tuesday when they tripped Meadville high 2 to 1. It was a tie game going into the eighth where in the bottom half the locals put the cincher across.

Kelly McCool offered a three-hit mound performance for Warren, and White and McKelvy provided the heavy sticks with two safeties in three times at the plate.

Last Thursday Jack Lobdell scattered five hits while the Dragons were racking up a 9-1 win over Jamestown. White and Creola were best at the plate with three hits each on three and four times at bat respectively. Both also clouted doubles.

FIRST OPEN ROUND

The first of two rounds which will be held for National Open qualifying was fired Monday. This cut the field of 2333 down to about 428. These now will join with 49 who were exempt to shoot in a sectional round, June 1, from which 150 players will emerge.

The exempt swingers are the last five winners of the Open, the ten lowest scorers in the 1958 Open (excluding the five winners), the PGA champion, the British Open champion, the American and British amateur champions, and the host pro.

Toby Lyons, former Warren pro, qualified at Buffalo's Park club. He now must shoot on the Orchard Park course in the sectional 36-hole round. Toby had 73-75--148 to place eighth in the first trial. Fred Paine, formerly of Warren, and now a big name in amateur golf, failed to make it at Pittsburgh.

PUBLIC EVENTS

A CHORAL FESTIVAL featuring the Warren Girl Choir, the Second Girl Choir, The Warren Ladies, and the Warren Mixed Voice Ensembles will be presented by Byron Swanson on Tuesday, May 26, in Beaty auditorium, beginning at 8:00 p. m.

More than seventy singers will participate in this Spring Choral event. In addition to the groups of choral numbers, at least one soloist from each choir will be heard.

The concert is to be in the form of a benefit for the newly-formed Dr. Leroy B. Campbell Piano Scholarship Fund, and all proceeds from the concert will be donated to this fund. In keeping with this Scholarship Fund, Pittsburgh's young and talented pianist, John Specht, will be heard as guest soloist.

Tickets are on sale from all choral members and will be available at the door next Tuesday evening.

TICKETS are now on sale for the 1959-60 Jaycee Concert Series, as announced by Dr. Laurence Krespan who is serving as General Chairman for the program this year.

Season tickets for adults are $8.00 (including tax), while student tickets are $3.00 for the series of concerts. Last year's ticket holders will be contacted by a member of the Membership Drive Committee, and anyone else wishing to purchase a season ticket may do so by sending a check covering the cost of the number of tickets desired, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Jaycee Concert Series, Box 147, Warren. Tickets will be forwarded by return mail. It is emphasized that no single admissions will be sold for any of the four projected concerts. Admission to all of the concerts will be by season ticket only.

The proposed schedule of concerts is as follows: October 9, Roberto Iglesias Ballet Company; February 18, Bel Canto Trio; March 24, Stanley Babin, rising young American piano virtuoso. Details on all of these performers will be published soon.

LET'S CELEBRATE WITH A BANG! Plans for the Jaycee-sponsored Fourth of July festivities are well underway and a good time is in store for all.

A Drum & Bugle Corps competition will be one of the big highlights of this year's celebration for the first time in three years. The competition will be staged and sponsored by the Cornplanter Drum & Bugle Corps of the American Legion Post in cooperation with the Jaycees. The Fourth of July Preference Poll conducted by the Jaycees last winter indicated overwhelmingly that the people of Warren want a Drum Corps competition on the Fourth of July.

Jack Barr, General Chairman of the competition for the Cornplanter, announced that five outstanding Drum & Bugle Corps have been signed to compete at War Memorial Field starting at 3:00 p. m. on the afternoon of the Fourth.

Stand by for further announcements of the Grand and Glorious Fourth of July celebration.

THE RELIEF OF SUMMER

During a vain effort to find a few moments of pleasure in front of our television screen over the week end we were consoled by one possibility. Summer cannot be far away. Or what passes for summer on the calendar.

No matter what the weather may bring, perhaps we will become so disturbed by what emanates from that sleep-inducing glare that we will be driven to reading the score of good books which have accumulated on our "must" list and somehow will be at least scanned in the next few weeks.

We have decided that a major share of television is terrible. At least it was so bad over the week end that we cannot find words that will lambast it with sufficient force.

For the first time we watched something called Pete Kelly's Blues. Now there is a program that is almost well named. We would call it the poor viewer's blues. Whoever wrote the plot didn't earn his salary if he spent no more than a few minutes doing it. Certainly there was no mental processes involved. Infantile lines, impossible morons as characters, and less plot than one can find on a clean piece of paper.

Then there was a number called something like facing danger. A woman claimed she was a man's wife. She said it was her twin sister who had died, not her, and because of this she was not guilty of some crime. Everyone but the man testified that she could be his wife as far as they could tell.

But the husband said she was not his wife. His wife was dead. To test her he could think of nothing any more intimate than his office address and his telephone number.

We are to believe that a man and woman could be in love and live together several years without many intimate details about which an imposter would have no way of knowing. It reeked!

And these are the people who won't let a Firestone program have time for fear the public will turn to another network? If they are right the public is composed of imbeciles.

The most over-rated and award-surfeited program of the year was the one done by Fred Astaire. In fact, even Astaire now is offering to return the award for acting. He admits he is no actor and that he was doing a dance show.

The show itself was good. Far better than average. But we would not call it the best of the year, and it would have been much better if the dancer had done more of the same and avoided the over-long singing portions. We have frogs on the river bank which have tones as sweet. (And peepers in the spring would make Astaire sound like a file scratching its own back.)

Returning to our unhappy weekend, there was a bit done by the chairman of our council of economic advisers, Raymond Saulnier, who was supposed to be facing the nation. He faced the most kind group of reporters we ever have witnessed, or maybe they were the least alert.

Any description would be of the least, because that is exactly what they got out of Saulnier. He "uhed" and "ahed" his way through a half hour of questions, saying absolutely nothing, despite the fact that his generalized contradictions left him easy prey for a true panel of inquisitive public representatives. Which reporters in this case are supposed to be.

We did learn his name, though we were forced to make a note of it, and he was so negative that we couldn't remember it this moment, nor could we remember what he doesn't do in Washington.

CBS almost practiced freedom of speech when it gave Cuban representatives and two American congressmen a chance to answer statements made on a previous program. On the previous occasion the CBS reporter said communism was threatening Cuba, and the failure to hurry up democratic processes by means of a public election was lamented.

But CBS reporters refused to let the visitors have full voice. They were interrupted, and they couldn't be blamed if they cut into the CBS gentleman's time when he voiced his answer.

If they want to be this lively they should make it a solid hour of talk and have some kind of control. It could have been a spritely bit of debate if handled properly.

AND TU RADIO

While we are flailing at the waves which bring noise and sound into our living room, why not a bit of radio which constantly nauseates us with its lengthy self praise. It continually boasts about its public service and never fails to read any notes or letters of congratulations which all mediums receive but a major share of us manage to gratefully accept without a blare of trumpets.

Radio is giving the public absolutely nothing. It is the public which gives. Radio is given a license to use air time. It is allowed to use about half of this for commercial purposes. The other half belongs to you. It is for your use and should not be denied you.

The best public program provided by the local station is the council meeting broadcast. It amazes us that some sponsor hasn't grabbed it. We wish all governing groups could be put into the fishbowl in this manner.

We believe radio has much to offer and really does many fine things, but we deplore its lack of modesty. Whether or not we public information mediums do a good job is for the people to decide. When we become a bit over-grubby about five minutes of radio time, which may very well rightfully belong to the public, the contract is not being justly fulfilled.

NEW PROGRAM IDEAS ANNOUNCED BY NBC

NBC News has created a development fund which will permit surveys of a wide variety of program ideas, ranging from mental health to African nationalism. The following programs are already being prepared as potential entries in the summer and fall schedules of the NBC-TV network:

A two-part series on the rise of nationalism in Africa, with emphasis on some of the lesser known countries lying between Cairo and Capetown; a special program on the possible use of chemicals in the treatment of mental illness, with investigation of recent experiments which may lead to an eventual chemical treatment for schizophrenia; and a news special on the struggle between democracy and communism in Latin America, dealing with political, economic and ideological trends of the area.

BOLSHOI BALLET ON TV

The Bolshoi Ballet of Moscow, currently making New York appearances, is negotiating a contract with Skiatron for television presentation. Ed Sullivan has been offered first chance at showing the world-famous dance troupe in four hour-long programs. Skiatron asks only that it be given credit for the tv appearance and that the viewing public be asked to make dollar donations for the show. Skiatron also would conduct an extensive advertising campaign to publicize the program.

A decision should be made shortly definitely announcing if the ballet show is to be shown in theatres on closed circuit tv, on home television sets, or syndicated via tape recording for sale to individual television stations. In any event, it appears that the Russian dancers will be seen by many Americans.

ODDS & ENDS

ART CARNEY has been signed by NBC to star in four ninety-minute dramas and four hour-long variety shows for next year.

LOVE AND MARRIAGE, new half-hour situation comedy series starring veteran actor William Demarest, will be seen on NBC Monday night, 8-8:30, starting Sept. 21.

SECRET OF FREEDOM, the full-hour play written by Pulitzer Prize-winning dramatist Archibald MacLeish, will co-star Kim Hunter, Thomas Mitchell and Tony Randall.

WHO PAYS?, new panel quiz show with Mike Wallace as emcee and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Celeste Holm and Gene Klavan as panelists, will start on the NBC network Thursday, July 2, at 8 p. m. On that date, "The Lawless Years" will move from the 8 p. m. to the 8:30 p. m. time period, replacing "Too Young To Go Steady."

COURT OF HUMAN RELATIONS will be seen Mondays through Fridays starting June 22 in the 2:30-3 p. m. time period, replacing "Haggis Baggis."

PLAYHOUSE 90, which produced "The Plot to Kill Stalin" last season, will present "The Killers of Mussolini" on June 4. Playhouse 90 will begin a series of thirteen repeat programs July 7 and extending to Sept. 24.

KEEP TALKING viewers will be interested in knowing that a new sponsor has been found to keep the show on CBS Wednesday nights. SCREEN GEMS, INC., announces that the PGA will cooperate in the production of two one-hour series about golf tournaments to be played on various courses.

ROBERT E. SHERWOOD AWARDS will be announced June 17 by the Funds for the Republic Foundation. More than three hundred programs have entered the competition. Judges will distribute $14,000 among three to seven winners. To be eligible, programs must be related to the subject "Freedom and Justice."

Winter Driving Is Rough On Cars

The front end steering mechanism of your car takes a lot of punishment during the winter months. Rough streets, ice ruts, etc. often throw the front end of a car out of alignment.

GET A BEAR STEERING CHECK-UP

The Bear Spring Steering Check-Up will eliminate shimmy, wind wander, and wobble. Your car will last longer, ride smoother, and practically steer itself. DRIVE IN TODAY.

Television and Radio

By John Crosby

(John Crosby is on vacation. While he is away his column will be written by guest columnists.)

Rebuttal

By Robert W. Sarnoff

Chairman, National Broadcasting Co.

Possibly in deference to broadcasting's "equal-time" tradition, John Crosby has generously offered me equal space to discuss a recent column of his on my keynote address at this year's convention of the National Association of Broadcasters. I am grateful for the opportunity to confirm what his column suggested: that he and I are in fundamental disagreement over the character of the national television audience.

"I have yet," wrote Mr. Crosby, "to run down that 'mass audience' who sit there lapping up 'The Price Is Right' and screeching for more of same. I think people ACCEPT 'The Price Is Right' with varying degrees of indifference."

In my opinion, the American television fan is not the passive and indifferent citizen that Mr. Crosby suggests. I believe that watching television normally involves a conscious act of selection, and that no program ever maintains a large audience through indifference. Surely it is stretching to attribute the success of "The Price Is Right" to viewer indifference. Is it indifference when as many as 1,000,000 Americans a week mail in postcards to that single show. No more so, I believe, than when readers in droves enter the Tangletown Puzzle contest of the New York Herald Tribune or similar circulation-building projects in other newspapers that carry Mr. Crosby's column.

Today, 81 per cent of American TV set owners can choose from at least four channels. With the daytime "The Price Is Right," for example, one of the competing network programs is "I Love Lucy" -- re-runs, true, but still a program that Mr. Crosby indicates is acceptable even to intellectuals.

But even if Lucy re-runs, or the programs of other channels, are not to the viewer's taste, does indifference still chain him to "The Price Is Right"? Sociologists say we live in the midst of the richest variety of leisure-time activities in the history of mankind -- and all of them compete with television. We can listen to the radio or the phonograph, go to a movie or a bowling alley, read "Dr Zhivago" or the latest magazine, play bridge or study the stock market, practice putting or photography or scores of other hobbies -- or read newspapers. When tens of millions of people tune consistently to one television program, I believe they are making a deliberate selection over a vast array of alternatives.

The mass audience is anything but the faceless blob or the row of ciphers that the phrase suggests when it prompts Mr. Crosby to ask: "Hath not a mass eyes? Hath not a mass ears?" Indeed it does -- in fact, more eyes and ears than anyone else. It consists, after all, of the same people who make up perhaps the most selective and most vocal political electorate in the world. It is an articulate mass, quick to register like or dislike. On some happy day, I hope, Mr. Crosby will come forth and confess that when he criticizes broadcasters for much of their popular entertainment fare, he really means to criticize popular taste. And there is no reason he should don sackcloth to do so. The fact that his own preferences often depart from popular taste in no sense makes him a less worthy critic.

The job facing the television industry as I see it is to attempt to reconcile more effectively the varying, and often contradictory, tastes of the national audience -- including those of Mr. Crosby. And we must do so, not by abdicating under the whip of criticism our primary responsibility to majority tastes but by seeking areas where all tastes can be satisfied more effectively.

In my NAB speech at Chicago I suggested that the industry embark on a communications effort to seek, from all groups, a clearer understanding of television's role in our society. After only eleven years, television has become the first "total" mass medium. The questions surrounding its operation are many and complex, and they call for some calm reflection. Why should mass entertainment, per se, become a phrase of almost ill repute? How can we achieve a more effective program mix to satisfy both majority and minority desires?

Everybody I've met in this industry wants to find better answers to these questions. That was a primary purpose for the communications effort I proposed -- not, as some of the more superficial observers of the medium have suggested, to "whitewash" our "medi-crity." I hope this effort will produce a new two-way informational bridge between broadcasters and the public, including those groups who voice dissatisfaction with today's fare. From it we hope to learn more of how all elements of the public feel about television. And, above all, we hope to obtain that knowledge within a framework of genuine public understanding of the task we try to perform.

If it comes to us within that framework, we feel it will be enormously helpful in shaping television's future.

The Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Warren hereby enacts and ordains as follows:

SECTION 1. Adoption of Fire Prevention Code.

There is hereby adopted by the Borough of Warren for the purpose of prescribing regulations governing conditions hazardous to life and property from fire or explosion, that certain code known as the Fire Prevention Code, A. E., recommended by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, being particularly the 1956 edition thereof and the whole thereof, save and except such portions as are hereinafter deleted, modified or amended (by Section 5 of this Ordinance), of which Code not less than three copies have been and now are filed in the office of the Borough Secretary and the same are hereby adopted and incorporated as fully as if set out at length herein, and from the date on which this Ordinance shall take effect, the provisions thereof shall be controlling within the limits of the Borough of Warren.

SECTION 2. Enforcement.

SECTION 4. Establishment of Limits of Districts In Which Storage of Flammable Liquids In Outside Above Ground Tanks And Bulk Storage Of Liquefied Petroleum Gases Is To Be Restricted.

The limits referred to in Section 904a of the Code hereby adopted in which storage of flammable liquids in outside above ground tanks is prohibited, and the limits referred to in Section 1104 of the Code hereby adopted in which bulk storage of liquefied petroleum gas is restricted, are hereby established as follows: R-1 Residential Districts, R-2 Residential Districts, R-3 Residential Districts, C-1 Commercial Districts, C-2 Commercial Districts, and C-3, Commercial Districts as now or hereafter defined in Warren Borough Zoning Ordinance of 1951, as amended.

Article 6 which deals with Explosives is hereby deleted in its entirety.

SECTION 6. Modifications.

The Chief of the Fire Department shall have power to modify any of the provisions of the Code hereby adopted upon application in writing by the owner or lessee, or his duly authorized agent, when there are practical difficulties in the way of carrying out the strict letter of the Code, provided that the spirit of the Code shall be observed, public safety secured and substantial justice done. The particulars of such modification when granted or allowed and the decision of the Chief of the Fire Department thereon shall be entered upon the records of the Department and a signed copy shall be furnished the applicant.

SECTION 7. Permits.

The Public Safety Committee shall, on hearing such an appeal, have jurisdiction and authority by a majority vote of said Committee to affirm, reverse or modify any ruling of the Chief of the Fire Department appealed from. The action of the said Public Safety Committee of the Warren Borough Council shall be final.
